- 2.1 The purpose of this policy is to:
- supplement the Company's Corporate Code of Conduct by setting out the conduct expected by the Company to minimise the risk of bribery or corruption occurring in connection with its operations and activities; and

- 2.2 By definition, Bribery is the offering, promising, giving, accepting or soliciting of an advantage as an inducement for action which is illegal, unethical or a breach of trust. A bribe is an inducement or reward offered, promised or provided in order to gain any commercial, contractual, regulatory or personal advantage and can take the form of gifts, loans, fees, rewards or other advantages. Corruption is the abuse of entrusted power for private gain.

3.2 Prohibition on Corruption

The Company prohibits bribery and corruption, in any form, whether direct or indirect, whether in the private or public sector, anywhere in the world. Most countries have laws prohibiting bribery of private individuals and government officials. There are potentially serious consequences (for the Company and persons representing the Company) for contraventions of anti-bribery and corruption laws. These consequences can include civil and criminal penalties, including substantial fines and imprisonment.

Employees who engage in any conduct involving bribery or corruption will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, in addition to applicable civil and criminal penalties.

To this end:

- a. you must not offer, pay solicit or accept bribes in any form;
- b. you must not engage in any form of corrupt business practice, whether for the benefit of the Company, yourself or another party;
- c. you must not facilitate prohibited payments; and
- d. immediately report any requests for bribes or facilitation payments to the Managing Director (or equivalent).

The prohibition is not subject to any local customs or business practices.

3.3 Gifts and Entertainment

The Company does not permit the exchange of gifts or involvement in hospitality activities that is beyond general commercial practice or that occurs in circumstances that could be considered to give rise to undue influence. The Company appreciates that the practice of giving business gifts varies between countries and regions and what may be normal and accepted in one region may not be in another. The test to be applied is whether in all the circumstances the gifts or hospitality is reasonable, justifiable and is proportionate. The intention behind the gift should always be considered. If in doubt seek advice from your manager or the Managing Director (or equivalent).

3.4 Local agents and representatives

It is prohibited by this Policy and the law to offer, give, solicit or receive a bribe indirectly, through a third party. It may, in certain circumstances, be necessary for the Company to engage a local agent or representative to represent the Company's interests. The prior approval of the Managing Director (or equivalent) is required for the appointment or engagement of any local agent or representative.

3.5 Reporting Violations

You must immediately report any suspected or actual violation of this Policy

The report may be made in accordance with the Company's Whistleblower Policy.

3.6 Protection from Sanction

You will not be subjected to any form of punishment or reprisal from the Company for;

- a. raising a concern regarding, or reporting, any instance of non-compliance or suspected non-compliance with this Policy, provided the report is made in good faith; or
- b. refusing to provide or receive a bribe or for refusing to participate in corrupt activity

The Company prohibits retaliatory action by employees, contractors or officers against any individual who:

- a. refuses to follow a directive or participate in any activity in circumstances where they are concerned that doing so may amount to a breach of this Policy; and/or
- b. is involved in the reporting of conduct which they believe or suspect amounts to non-compliance with this Policy.

4. CONSEQUENCES

Any breach of this Policy is a serious matter which will be investigated and addressed by the Company. Disciplinary action will be taken against anyone who breaches this Policy. Disciplinary action will depend on the severity of the breach.
